

INTERACTION:

Developing Intercultural Competency

Practical Cultural Intelligence & Intercultural Competency

WORKSHOP

This is a new practical intercultural workshop; building from personal and professional perspectives, the workshop focuses on practical cultural intelligence and intercultural competency.

...workshop overview:

- this is a new and innovative workshop
- the workshop is practical and hands-on, with the focus being the circumstances and requirements of workshop delegates
- the workshop is flexible and adaptable, shaped by delegate participation
- the workshop will be conducted in a respectful, caring and exploratory manner

The workshop is based on 3 interconnected, practical, pillars taking delegates through a journey of intercultural exploration. The 3, flexible, workshop pillars are outlined below:

...the delegate:

the initial, participatory, workshop pillar will reflect on delegates own culture, including:-

- your cultural background
- your cultural insights, observations and experiences
- your workshop needs, requirements and objectives

...the concept:

the second workshop pillar will build upon delegate's observations, examining:-

- what do we mean by cultural intelligence
- what do we mean by intercultural competency
- how does an intercultural approach differ from other approaches
- what are the key components of an intercultural approach

...the competency:

the final workshop pillar will frame delegate participation and observations in terms of intercultural advantage, reflecting on:-

- a basic overview of intercultural competency
- key components of intercultural competency
- practical, hands-on, reflection of intercultural competency in relation to your personal and professional objectives

...Interact: centre for intercultural learning & action

Interact is an organisation dedicated to promoting and supporting intercultural development through:-

- promoting interdisciplinary intercultural thinking, perspectives and insights
- delivering intercultural education and training
- undertaking interdisciplinary research and analysis, promoting intercultural dialogue and discourse
- delivering strategic and operational intercultural support; namely, consultancy support, advice and information
- promoting and implementing cultural intelligence and intercultural competencies within community, educational, public and private organisations

...workshop - practical arrangements:

The workshop is an innovative pilot project and will charge a minimal administration fee of £20.00 per delegate. Basic catering and refreshments will be provided.
